Louis Etienne Goulé and a Threadbare Wellington Quilt

A talk by Wendy Larmour

Fact, Fiction or

Chinese whispers ?

The finding of an old auction sale notice during the refurbishment of an inglenook fireplace eventually led to a search for proof that Goulé was the anonymous subject of a Worcester villages folklore.

Was he really Wellington's army surgeon and was it really his quilt?

St Peter's Centre, Pedmore Lane, Pedmore, DY9 0SW.

Doors Open at 7pm for refreshments, Talk at 7:30pm Free Entry
